

House Rules

1. No name-dropping. Leave your entitlement and status at the door.
2. Please respect our neighbours' property. Refrain from smoking or loitering outside.
3. Direct and severe eye contact is recommended for all patrons toasting.
4. No yelling, hollering, shouting, fighting, screaming, or other loud behaviour unless it is an attempt to warn fellow patrons or employees of impending doom or a police raid.
5. Feel free to work or play here in a manner consistent with other patrons' peaceful enjoyment.
6. Do not bring anyone unless you would leave that person alone in your home. You are responsible for the behaviour of your guests. This place is meant to be a home away from home for all patrons; do not be "that person".
7. We are here to serve and tell stories. If you would like to delve deeper into what you are drinking, what adorns the walls, and the history behind such things, feel free to ask questions.
8. We do not have a superior bathroom for clandestine indulgences. Take the hint, and refrain from bringing such activities into our establishment.
9. Exit the bar swiftly and quietly. People are endeavouring to sleep across the street and above us. Kindly finalise your travel plans and bid your farewells before departing the premises.

A surcharge of 10% applies on Sundays and 15% applies on public holidays.

At The Art Syndicate, we pride ourselves on exclusively showcasing local wines, beers, and spirits from all over NSW. Each region has unique qualities which manifest themselves in their own distinctive ways. For more information about a region or any of our selection, please do not hesitate to ask Lisa or Saxon!

Our wines are available by the glass, carafe (375ml) and bottle.

Wine - Sparkling

12/62 NV See Saw Organic Wines “Balance” Nashdale,
Prosecco Orange Region
Monica Gray

With over 30 years experience, this family run business is becoming one of Australia’s leading organic wine labels. This fresh wine screams lemon sherbet and freshly cut green apple.

23/130 2016 Gallagher Wines “Blanc de Blanc” Jeir,
Chardonnay Canberra District
Greg Gallagher

Making wine since the 1970s, Greg’s Blanc de Blanc is a great example of his meticulous approach to winemaking. Made in the “traditional method” this current vintage was aged for 7 years and developed beautiful aromas of honeydew melon, buttery pastry and a creamy texture.

15/84 2021 Topper’s Mountain Wines “Rosé Extra Brut” New England
Nebbiolo
Mark and Stephanie Kirkby

High up above 900m, the ten hectare vineyard specialises in alternative varieties. The Kirkbys don’t use any pesticides, but rather promote a balanced ecosystem that is able to help itself. As the only sparkling Nebbiolo made in Australia, it is full of fresh rosehip and wild strawberry aromas, with a creamy texture.

Wine - White

16/39/76 2024 Samantha May Wines Orange and Mudgee
Riesling
Samantha Sutherland

Taking inspiration from her travels and great wines from around the world, Sam focuses on crafting small batch, single-vineyard wines, to be enjoyed and shared in good company. The wine is full of zesty citrus notes, while gentle oak ageing gives a pleasant texture.

15/37/72 2024 Mada Wines “Blanc” Hilltops
Pinot Gris, Gewürztraminer, Riesling
Hamish Young

Dedicated to showcasing the potential of the Canberra, Hilltops and Tumbarumba regions, Hamish collaborates with viticulturalists who share his philosophy. This is a generous blend with lots of zestiness and aromas of orange blossom and fresh lychee.

14/35/67 2023 Tumblong Hills Gundagai
Chenin Blanc
Simon Robertson

Tumblong Hills’ philosophy is all about thoughtful vineyard practices, respecting nature and working to protect the environment. Chenin Blanc is originally from France but has found perfect growing conditions in NSW, producing classic notes of honeysuckle, pear and quince.

18/45/87 2021 Wondalma Vineyard Tumbarumba
Chardonnay
Stuart and Janine Barclay

Renowned for growing outstanding Chardonnay in Tumbarumba for many producers in Australia, this wine is from their own label. Fresh flavours of white peaches and grapefruit are complemented by creamy and flinty notes from gentle oak ageing.

Wine - White (Continued)

25/62/120 2023 Origines “Focus” Orange
Chardonnay
Alex Beckett and Jan Taborsky

Meeting in the Master of Wine program, the winemakers connected over their passion for small batch, terroir driven wine. The thoughtful approach to wine-making and long oak maturation created a layered, ever evolving wine with aromas of lemon curd, fresh yellow apple and baking spices.

18/45/87 2024 Matthew Atallah Wines Orange
“Block 5, La Femme Nikita”
Sauvignon Blanc
Matthew Atallah

With a focus on texture, finesse and balance in all his wines, Matt believes that wines from Orange can stand proudly alongside the world’s best. Taking inspiration from styles of the french Loire Valley, the wine is laden with tropical fruits and herbaceous texture from the extended time in older oak barrels.

27/67/130 2014 Silkman Wines “Blackberry” Pokolbin,
Semillon Hunter Valley
Liz Silkman

Being named Halliday Winemaker of the Year 2025, Liz’s vision is to make some of the best small batch contemporary versions of traditional Hunter varieties. This aged Semillon shows intense flavours of preserved lemon, chamomile and mouthcoating notes of crème brulee and green almonds.

Wine - Amber

17/43/84 2021 Topper's Mountain Wines "Hill of Dreams" New England
Sauvignon Blanc, Verdejo,
Grüner Veltliner
Mark and Stephanie Kirkby

The ten hectare vineyard is located 900m above sea level and specialises in alternative varieties. The Hill of Dreams is a place of diversity and experimentation. The different varieties are spontaneously fermented on their skins for texture and fragrant notes of jalapeno, preserved lemon and gooseberry compote.

Wine - Rosé

14/35/67 2023 Sapling Yard "The Four Pinots" Tumbarumba and Gris, Noir, Meunier, Blanc Braidwood
Carla Rodeghiero

Sapling Yard was founded in 2008 when Carla planted her own vineyard in Braidwood at 650 metres above sea level. The blend of Pinots makes an intriguing wine full of depth and flavours of pink grapefruit, raspberry coulis and red apple skin.

17/44/85 2022 Nashdale Lane "Legacy Rosé" Nashdale,
Shiraz Orange
Tanya and Nick Segger

The Legacy series is all about a patient winemaking approach. Using the heavier grape pressings and aged in seasoned oak for 10 months, this richer style is for everyone enjoying a chilled red. This wine shows aromas of wild strawberries, raspberries and exotic spices leading to a smooth textured finish.

Wine - Red

15/40/78 2023 Renzaglia Wines “Nuovo di Renzo” O’Connell Valley,
Sangiovese, Graciano, Merlot, Shiraz, Central Ranges
Cabernet Sauvignon
Sam Renzaglia

The Renzaglia family sees themselves as “Stewards of the vines” with a balanced ecosystem in mind. Their “di Renzo” label explores unique styles through innovative and creative winemaking techniques. This chilled red is full of fresh, crunchy fruit and savoury herbaceousness.

17/43/83 2023 Sabi Wabi “Nomu” Hunter Valley
Syrah
Peta Kotz

Peta, a “Young Gun Of Wine 2022 - Winemaker’s Choice” winner, is producing small batch, low-intervention wines. The “Nomu” was made entirely in stainless steel, preserving the fresh fruit flavours and delicate aromas of this lighter style.

18/47/90 2022 Rowlee Wines “Single Vineyard” Nashdale,
Pinot Noir Orange
Nicole Samodol and James Manny

Handpicking from an eight hectare vineyard situated on Orange’s ancient volcanic soils, the team at Rowlee focus on small batch winemaking with sustainable practices. Layers of crunchy red fruit with notes of cinnamon and liquorice add to the complexity and depth of the wine.

14/36/65 2022 Whitton Farm “Rosso” Hilltops
Sangiovese, Shiraz
Caleb Wearne

Whitton Farm, driven by a passion for fine Italian wines, produces small batch handcrafted wines from New South Wales’ premium, often overlooked wine regions that share a similar climate to central Italy. The Rosso is a medium bodied blend, boasting red cherries and soft spices.

Wine - Red (Continued)

15/35/70 2019 The Little Wine Company Broke Fordwich,
Barbera Hunter Valley
Suzanne and Ian Little

Suzanne and Ian, both from winemaking backgrounds, joined forces in 2000. Originally from Italy's northern Piedmont region, this Barbera enjoys the Hunter's long sunshine hours and displays plush red and black berries with soft tannins.

18/44/85 2018 Glenguin "Aristea" Broke Fordwich,
Shiraz Hunter Valley
Robin, Rita and Andrew Tedder

Under the guidance of Master of Wine Robin Tedder, the estate follows organic and biodynamic principles to produce limited, high-quality Shiraz and Semillon from vines descended from James Busby's original 1820's plantings. Powerful yet refined, the wine has notes of ripe berries, dark chocolate and Christmas cake.

14/36/69 2015 Quilty Wines "Silken Thread" Mudgee
Petit Verdot
Des Quilty

Des Quilty, known for making age worthy, single parcel reds, has been working as a viticulturist for 20 years. The wine is from a tiny plot of hand-picked grapes from low-yielding vines on the Southern edge of Mudgee, with only 178 cases produced. This beautifully aged wine has developed intense aromas of vanilla bean, macerated blueberries and forest fruits.

Wine - Sweet

2022 Vinifera Wines “Easter”
8/60 Semillon
Sam McKendry

Mudgee

The McKendry family has been growing grapes organically since 2008, becoming certified organic in 2013. Made from botrytis grapes, the wine shows aromas of honeysuckle while flavours of candied cashews, honey and orange marmalade coat the palate.

Wine - Non-alcoholic

NV Altina “Finger Lime”
12/30/55 Sauvignon Blanc
Christina Delay and Alan Tse Ca

Mitchell,
Canberra District

In 2018, Christina and Alan went on a mission to craft complex drinks combining premium Australian wine with botanicals. Their de-alcoholised Sauvignon Blanc features aromas of white nectarine, fresh cucumber, and notes of pepper and lemon grass.
